

For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

Tesla

I read an article in the 1980s about how Nicola Tesla theorized that you could control the weather with elf (extremely low frequency) radio waves. He said you could create low pressure cells which are the beginning of hurricanes. You could use these same radio waves to heat up an area of ocean like microwave ovens do to food, creating el niño and la niña weather patterns. He said you could also steer hurricanes by deflection, by setting up other pressure cells to bump them around like a pool ball. You could create droughts and floods with pressure cells by using them to block the movement of weather patterns, causing it to rain constantly in one spot until it becomes flooded, or cause a drought by blocking the rain from coming into an area. He said you could trigger earthquakes or volcanoes by sending elf waves into the magma of the earth. That was over a hundred years ago. Reckon they have developed any of these capabilities, and would they ever be evil enough to use them?

The alternative is that you caused it by: driving too much, using too much electricity, and eating too many hamburgers. But if someone did want to scare you into believing man made climate change is the cause of it, weather modification would be an effective way to do it. It gives them plausible deniability.

But if you want to control it, to go where it will do the most damage, you do need the technology. No, you don't need "technology" to make it happen, but you do need technology to make it do what you want it to do. They get the benefit of "order out of chaos" or "ordo ab chao". It is a political strategy of mass psychology called Hegelian dialectic. It is the real power of world government; who controls perception, controls the world.

“The conscious and intelligent manipulation of the organized habits and opinions of the masses is an important element in democratic society. Those who manipulate this unseen mechanism of society constitute an invisible government which is the true ruling power of our country. ...We are governed, our minds are molded, our tastes formed, our ideas suggested, largely by men we have never heard of.”
